

December 1, 2009

Outsports.com
Attention: Jim Buzinski/Cyd Zeigler, Jr.

VIA EMAIL
(jim@outsports.com and cyd@outsports.com)

Re: Unauthorized Posting and Use of Grady Sizemore's Stolen Photographs

Ladies and Gentlemen:

THIS MATTER REQUIRES YOUR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION.

Please be advised that CAA Sports represents Grady Sizemore. It has come to our attention that you are posting a number of photographs of Mr. Sizemore that are his property (the "Photographs"). The Photographs, which were stolen from a personal computer, are posted on your "Outsports" website found at the links <http://www.outsports.com/forums/index.php?s=c960bbd3b64c54fec7ac28254cdfbec9&showtopic=41737> and <http://outsports.com/jocktalkblog/2009/11/29/revealing-grady-sizemore-pictures/> (the "Website").

You have not been granted any right whatsoever by Mr. Sizemore to use the Photographs. Further, the posting of materials known to be stolen is an invasion of Mr. Sizemore's privacy and may be actionable at law. Such posting, therefore, subjects the Website, you, your employees and principals, and all individuals/entities associated with this activity to serious potential liability.

Accordingly, you are hereby directed to cease and desist immediately all postings and other uses of the Photographs on the Website.

We trust that you can appreciate the serious nature of this situation and will therefore act accordingly.

We ask that you preserve any records associated with the submission of the Photographs to you in anticipation of a criminal complaint to be filed with local law enforcement.

Should you fail to comply immediately with the terms of this letter, we will be forced to explore all available remedies against the Website and you.

All of Mr. Sizemore's rights and remedies, both at law and in equity, are hereby reserved.

Sincerely yours,

Terence B. Prince

cc: Client
Joe Urbon
Major League Baseball, Investigations Unit